The Jerusalem KNIGHTS FESTIVAL In the Old City 2013

Scores of knights and other medieval figures in full dress, jousts, tales of heroism and an array of performances await visitors to Jerusalem's Old City on Thursday evenings from late October through November 2013, ensuring a unique and exciting experience for visitors of all ages. The Jerusalem Development Authority, in cooperation with the Ministry for Jerusalem and Diaspora Affairs, the Jerusalem Municipality and Ariel Municipal Company, invite you to stroll within the Old City's ancient stone walls and along its picturesque and mysterious alleys on the enchanted Festival evenings, and view or participate in traditional dances, knightly battles, acrobatic and fire performances, street theater, medieval fashion shows, story-telling sessions, colorful pageants, horse-drawn carriages, stirring musical performances, a medieval knights' pub, and other spectacular shows and surprises!

Visitor information:

The Festival format is that of a self-guided tour in which visitors navigate among the various theatrical events taking place along a marked route in Jerusalem's Old City.

The route is circular, beginning and ending at the Jaffa Gate Plaza.

The route winds through the Old City's alleys and cannot accommodate baby carriages/strollers.
